

Gossip, 3 things to consider before you do it:

1. What you gossip about not only always comes to the light, but often very soon and in a way that leaves you with egg on the face.
2. The people you gossip to do not rebuke you – not because they think you are right but – because they know your actions are driven by insecurity.
3. When God humbles you to deal with the spirit of gossip in your heart – and to force you to deal with your insecurities – the people you were gossiping about will often be the very people who feel sorry for you, pray with you, and walk a road to restoration with you.

Don't let the enemy of your soul lie to you, gossip is never from God, and it will never make people think you are in the right.
