

He Holds

He holds in His hands the depths of the earth and the mightiest mountains.(Psalms 95:4 NLT)

The depths, make me think of hidden riches, hidden wisdom and revelation and financial provision not yet discovered or claimed, but very much there and available to us. The mightiest mountain to me, makes me think of the biggest worries we have, our biggest battles, our biggest fears and deepest weaknesses... It is comforting to remember that, He has the hidden riches in His hand and He has every mountain we face in His hands too...
