

On the Throne

And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a Throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the Throne was the likeness as the appearance of a Man above upon it. (Ezekiel 1:26)

No matter what you face, what is in front of you, what you fear, what you are going through, remember this... God is above and still on His Throne, still in control and still able to do abundantly over and above all that you might ask for, wish for or dear dream... Stay in-line with God and He will fulfil His great vision in your life, the one He dreams for you, and that includes a hope and a future, and to do you good and no harm... Scriptural promises are not just pretty quotes, they are true and real and concrete...

Lord may we break free from religion and the enemies lies, the lies that tell us your promises are just pretty words and not fact. May we truly come to understand that every promise You make us is reliable and factual, and that we can trust You, even when it feels like there is no way out.
In Jesus holy name. Amen.
