

The life you have now.

You will have an eternity to live out "eternity", do not neglect the life God has for you right now, spend the life you have now learning to love, respect, serve, lead, grow up.. And take in every day.. Live each day honouring God, finding God and loving God, and loving others more and more as His love cleanses us more and more.. And the rest will fall in place by itself.

Psalm 63:4, 1 Corinthians 10:31, Matt 6:33+34, Psalm 146:2, Isaiah 2:22

May we all come to understand it and live it, despite ourselves.

In His Service
