

Vision – Filthy rags

Vision seen during a time of quietness before God. I was standing in front of God's Throne. I had on a garment made from many filthy rags sown together. I saw myself dancing before God, trying to impress God with what I have done "for Him". I quickly realized this garment was my "best efforts" that Isaiah 64:6 (and Paul) refers to and that it means nothing in His presence, so I stopped dancing and stood still.

I came to a standstill. I heard His voice say "take it from him", immediately I saw two angels come and take off my "rag gown". I stood naked before God, with nothing to offer Him at all.

Then I heard God say "clothe him", then the angels came with two halves of a gown, perfect white, and I knew it was Jesus's efforts, and the two halves is like the veil that was torn in two for us by Jesus . As they put it on me the fibers wove themselves together, and it became a seamless one piece gown.

I then realized I was clothed in Christ's righteousness.

I began dancing with Jesus and other Saints - the saved - free from trying to impress, and overflowing with joy.

Dancing for and with God, just abandoned to His love.

Love in Christ
