

Sacrifice is an act of Love

During Christmas morning worship I was in the Spirit, I was in the Lords Throne room, there I saw women in white dresses dancing before the Lord and a bit closer to His Throne were people kneeling and still closer were people laying on their faces.

Right in front, face down, flat on the ground, I saw a dark haired man, he had cuts over his arms like whip marks, he was weeping deeply, but in love and worship not sorrow. Then the Holy Spirit said to me "Behold Paul of Tarsus".

Afterwards our pastor preached on sacrifice and the Holy Spirit dropped this into my spirit, "He who loves much, sacrifices much".

I had the revelation then that sacrifice is an act of love. This brought me into a deeper revelation of the price Jesus paid as an act of Love towards the Father and towards us and it makes me understand that our sacrifice should never be with complaints but with joy as it is an act of Love.
