

The Door

This was seen during a time of soaking and worship with friends:

I saw the Door to the Fathers presence open at a gap. I was a distance away and started running, trying to make it before the door closed, trying to make it on my own (as we so often do).

When I came closer I saw the Door was held open by Jesus, arms held out, holding it open, He looked at me and said "Freely you may enter".

I ran and jumped right at Him right into Him. I went right through Him (for He is the Door) and when I landed on the other side I was myself but also not myself. I could see myself as I am, but in glimpses I was golden and "beautiful" with His presence for in passing through Him I took on His image before the Father, glory filled, holy and purified, not by anything I did but by the Lamb!

John 10:9 I am the Door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out (of the Presence of God), and find pasture.

1 John 3:2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.

Undeserved favour.

Jaco Kruger – 12/3/2011

info@poj.org

www.pojc.org