

Egypt

For too long have My children claimed to walk free while they didn't..
Egypt will not let go of your minds until it lets go of your hearts, you can never walk in the true freedom of the revelation knowledge I have for you, never truly pick up and consume your fresh manna every day, never truly carry only My yoke and My burden until you let go of the yoke and burden Egypt has placed on your hearts...

Your minds seem free but they won't truly be until Egypt is out of your hearts..
Gone are the days where someone has to interpret for you what My heart is for your lives, you need to get fresh manna from Me yourselves only then will you truly start living like free men.. Come hear My heart, come see My thoughts, come learn My ways.. Let go of Egypt beloved ones, let go of Egypt..
