

I just want My children to come to Me

I just want My children to come to Me, if they would only come hear My heart and see My nature, My love is strong and passionate, My grace is truly enough but My children strive and struggle, My heart aches for Mine to seek Me, to seek My love, to seek My face above all but My children avoid My presence seeking sweets not solid food, how can I raise you up and strengthen you my children if you want to play games and seek fluff instead of seeking Me...

Come with no ideas, no expectancy of what you will find except to expect Me to show up for I will, I will shake your religion and shape your minds if you only allow Me to do what I do best, be God..

Love in Christ

Jaco Kruger - 30 January 2012

info@poj.org

www.pojc.org

Property of Jesus Christ

Twitter: @KrugerJacoH