

Run to Me

There comes a time in every child's life that they truly with everything within them trust and abandon totally all fears to Me.

Your time is now, fear and frailty and negativity and self doubt and doubt will go. My face you seek, My face you'll find.

Know that I AM God and I say the Light within you shall never ever be extinguished, do not fear or fret for deep within I know you know I will never abandon you.

You are Mine, called, cleansed, prepared, Mine. Abandon hopelessness and run to Me, run the race, run to win, and win you will because it is My Spirit within you driving you and He doesn't know how to loose.

You might not think yourself a born winner, but I promise you, you were re-born to win! Stand, shout to the Heavens... Victory... Victory... Victory... For Victory is Mine and yours in Me!!!

Cease introspection and run to Me!!!
