

Word for 2010

Peace without understanding

Peace without understanding is not peace at all. You have to understand that I am totally in control, else your peace will be short lived and quite superficial. Peace is a state of the heart and not a state of mind. You have to dig deep, shoot your roots deep into the soil beneath you and stand.

The peace that comes from standing in Me no matter what happens is a lasting one, for this peace is built on trust and not performance. I Am God. I have said it before and don't mind repeating Myself. I Am God. When you stand do not waver, do not base your roots on what you see but on What you know.

I Am Who I Am, I Am God. I have not abandoned nor changed nor rethought My strategy, My plans stand, Your future is secure. I Am God, I cannot lie, I will not fail, I cannot repent, I Am God. Trust, believe, shoot roots in that. You stand upon "I Am Who I Am", nothing else matters child. I Am God !!

Read Matthew 7:24-27

May you feel His love over your life in 2010, stand strong in Him, find peace in Him.
